

Floofable Takeaways

Let your curiosity lead; the unknown might just be your next favorite story.

Kindness isn't just something you feel. It is a choice you make, one small action at a time.

Empathy is when you feel someone else's feelings in your heart. Compassion is when you do something kind with that feeling.

Belonging begins when we stop waiting to be welcomed and start being the welcome.

The best groups aren't made of the same kind of awesome. Teamwork is built on trust, strengths, all running towards the same direction.

Big growth begins with small steps. Start where you are, and let each step move you forward.

Courage is doing the right thing, even when your paws are shaking a little.

Gratitude is not about waiting for hard times to say thank you. It notices the everyday kindness and the sparks of joy that make the journey better.

Respect means making space for others to feel seen, safe and valued.

Integrity means doing the right thing, especially when no one is watching.

Presence is showing up with your whole self, turning ordinary interactions into moments that truly matter.

Stewardship is walking gently, knowing the world is not yours to own, but yours to care for.

